Agreement between Thomas
G. Clement and Lough Brady Said Clement agrees to pay to Said Brady the sum of One hundred dollars, for the following work, when the same shall be completed by the latter in a good, satisfactory, and workmanlike manner.
Said Brady is to make a dam of pounded Clay not less than twelve feet broad at the base and six feet broad at the top and One hundred and thirty feet long, and as high as the present old dam, Said dam to be made in the place designated by Said Clement, extending from the bulkhead of the old dam to a stump on the line of the old race.
The bottom of said dam to be excavated down to the solid ground through all its length and breadth.
